A LETTER FROM JAY

On behalf of The RemFest team, we are excited to invite you to partner with us as a sponsor of the 2026 The RemFest Conference Series—a dynamic, multidisciplinary event connecting leaders in the environmental, hydrological, mining, waste, and air sectors.

Renowned for producing high-impact events with energy and purpose, Vikynz is committed to delivering meaningful, engaging experiences that foster innovation, collaboration, and community. Sponsorship offers direct access to a highly targeted audience of consultants, regulators, industry leaders, and academics—providing an unmatched platform to elevate your brand, showcase your services, and expand your influence.

Let's build something EPIC—together. Explore our sponsorship opportunities today and join a movement that's shaping the future of environmental/geoscience industries.

Have questions or ideas? We'd love to hear them.

Email themayor@vikynz.com or head to www.epicenv.org to learn more.

WHY SPONSOR?

Your support helps us advance a shared mission: to empower today's geoscience professionals while nurturing the next generation. In return, we deliver measurable value through strategic visibility—before, during, and after each event.

Audience Snapshot:

- ~70% Environmental/GeoScience professionals (engineers, geologists, biologists)
- ~10% Regulatory representatives (local, state, and federal)
- ~10% Industry-aligned professionals and service providers
- ~10% Education, legal, HSSE, and supporting sectors

What's New for 2026?

We're expanding to new markets and strongly considering others — Las Vegas, Seattle, and Dallas — bringing fresh opportunities to connect and grow. We're also proud to introduce Sasquatch Marketing Expertise, a bold new service that leverages our deep roots in geoscience marketing and event strategy.

Whether you're seeking brand visibility, lead generation, or strategic partnerships, we're ready to craft a custom approach that aligns with your goals and delivers impactful results.
